

Buldana Cambridge School Teaching Staff Started New Activity

Visiting Parents & Students At Their Home

In this covid-19 pandemic situation there is a communication gap between teachers & students, teachers & parents. After attending online classes some students are not understanding properly. So Buldana Cambridge School Teaching staff started a new activity to give visit at students home to meet parents and students. In this activity teachers are taking feedback of student progress and difficulties regarding all subjects.

